

AG 2400 End of Sale (EOS) Product Notification

April 28, 2017

Dear Nomadix Customer:

This corporate notification is to inform you that Nomadix is announcing the End of Sale (EOS) for the AG 2400 Access Gateway effective April 28, 2017.

The AG 2400 Access Gateway will continue to be supported to include access to software upgrades and software licenses and premium support services per Nomadix's Life Cycle Policy terms and conditions.

Please submit your future access gateway orders for the AG 2500, the follow on to the AG 2400. The AG 2400 will be superseded by the AG 2500 Access Gateway which is planned to be available May 2, 2017. The AG 2500 includes the proven NSE software and is ideal for value-driven, visitor-based network (VBN) venues. It offers support for copper WAN/LAN ports for small- to medium-sized venues, such as hotels with less than 150 rooms and supports up to 500 device users.
