NWCG End of Life Notice

Dear Nomadix Customer:

This notice is to remind you of and confirm the NWCG Gateway End of Sale (EOS) date of June 15, 2015 and to inform you of the effective End of Life (EOL) date, June 15, 2017.

As Nomadix continues its focus on its gateway and deep packet inspection appliances by releasing newer technologies, we will continue to provide support for the NWCG model per the following applicable dates.

- Final date for premium support of the NWCG – June 15, 2017
- Final date to obtain bug fixes to firmware – June 15, 2017
- Final date for hardware support, repair, and replacement – June 15, 2017

For a period of time beyond the EOL date, we will provide best effort support for the NWCG model with 24/7 web and call center access, excluding software upgrades and hardware replacement.

We encourage you to visit our website at www.nomadix.com or contact our sales team to learn more about our latest bandwidth management gateways. We value your business and thank you for your continued partnership.

Best regards,
